No Child or Teen Should Grieve Alone

Lindsay Clark Named Director of Development

It's my pleasure to announce that Lindsay Clark has been named the Director of Development for Ele's Place Ann Arbor!

Lindsay is a development professional with a passion for children's grief support. In addition to her professional fundraising and grant experience, she is also skilled in marketing/communications, event planning, youth work and volunteer management.

In 2016, Lindsay began volunteering with children's grief organizations. Upon her return to Ann Arbor in 2018, she trained to become a facilitator at Ele's Place Ann Arbor, and volunteers with children and teens in our weekly grief support groups. Lindsay happily shares that Ele's Place is her very favorite nonprofit, and she is beyond thrilled to join the incredible team at Ele's Place Ann Arbor as a member of our staff.

A native of Ann Arbor, Lindsay holds a B.A. in Psychology and English Literature from Denison University and a Master of Divinity from Princeton Theological Seminary.

I look forward to working with Lindsay to strengthen our development strategies and accomplish the Ele's Place Ann Arbor fundraising goals. She brings extensive development and nonprofit experience, which includes collaborating with and stewarding individuals, foundations and nonprofit partners. Lindsay's knowledge of the Ele's Place mission and her dedication to our grieving families allow her to immediately begin engaging current and prospective donors, grantors, supporters and partners, to establish strong long-term relationships.

As we begin the new year, I wish you and yours a safe and healthy 2021. We are grateful for YOU and your support, and thank YOU for standing by Ele's Place Ann Arbor so we are able to stand by the grieving children, teens and their families in Ann Arbor and the surrounding southeast Michigan area, FREE OF CHARGE.

Please join me in welcoming Lindsay Clark as the Director of Development of Ele's Place Ann Arbor! Lindsay may be reached via email at lclark@elesplace.org.

With gratitude,

Bree Arvai
Branch Director
