5. You may click on a therapist to learn more about their background and therapy style, or you may call them using the number provided. Some therapists will note if they are not accepting new clients or if they are wait-listing new clients.

 Waitlist for new clients

 Not accepting new clients

6. You may ask the therapist questions in your initial contact to assess the fit – feel welcome to ask what their style is, how they approach issues, and if they have experience caring for individuals who are coping with similar circumstances to yours. You deserve a therapist who feels emotionally safe to you.
